

DEAR VALUED ELEVIEW^{®*} CUSTOMER

We are pleased to let you know that in May 2019, Medtronic and Cosmo Pharmaceutical (parent company of Aries) formed a partnership making Medtronic the exclusive U.S. distributor of Eleview^{®*} submucosal injectable composition. We are happy to announce that integration is now complete, and we are ready to begin serving you.

A great addition to our portfolio of Gastrointestinal & Hepatology solutions

This distribution agreement represents our initial entry into the field of endoscopic lesion resection. It complements our strong offering of unique and clinically impactful GIH products designed to help you support your patients' health.

We also want to assure you that we are committed to providing you with the same high level of service for Eleview^{®*} products that you have come to enjoy with our other solutions.

Ordering Eleview^{®*} Products
